

Circular.

St. James's 29th Feb. 1780.

Sir,

I have the greatest satisfaction in sending you the inclosed Gazette Extraordinary, containing a most favourable confirmation of and addition to the Accounts which had been received of the signal Victory obtained by His Majesty's Fleet, under the Command of Sir George Rodney, on the 16th of January, over the Spanish Fleet, commanded by Don Juan de Langara. I need not dwell on the importance of this Event, which must be attended with the happiest Consequences.

I am, with great Truth and Regard,

Sir,

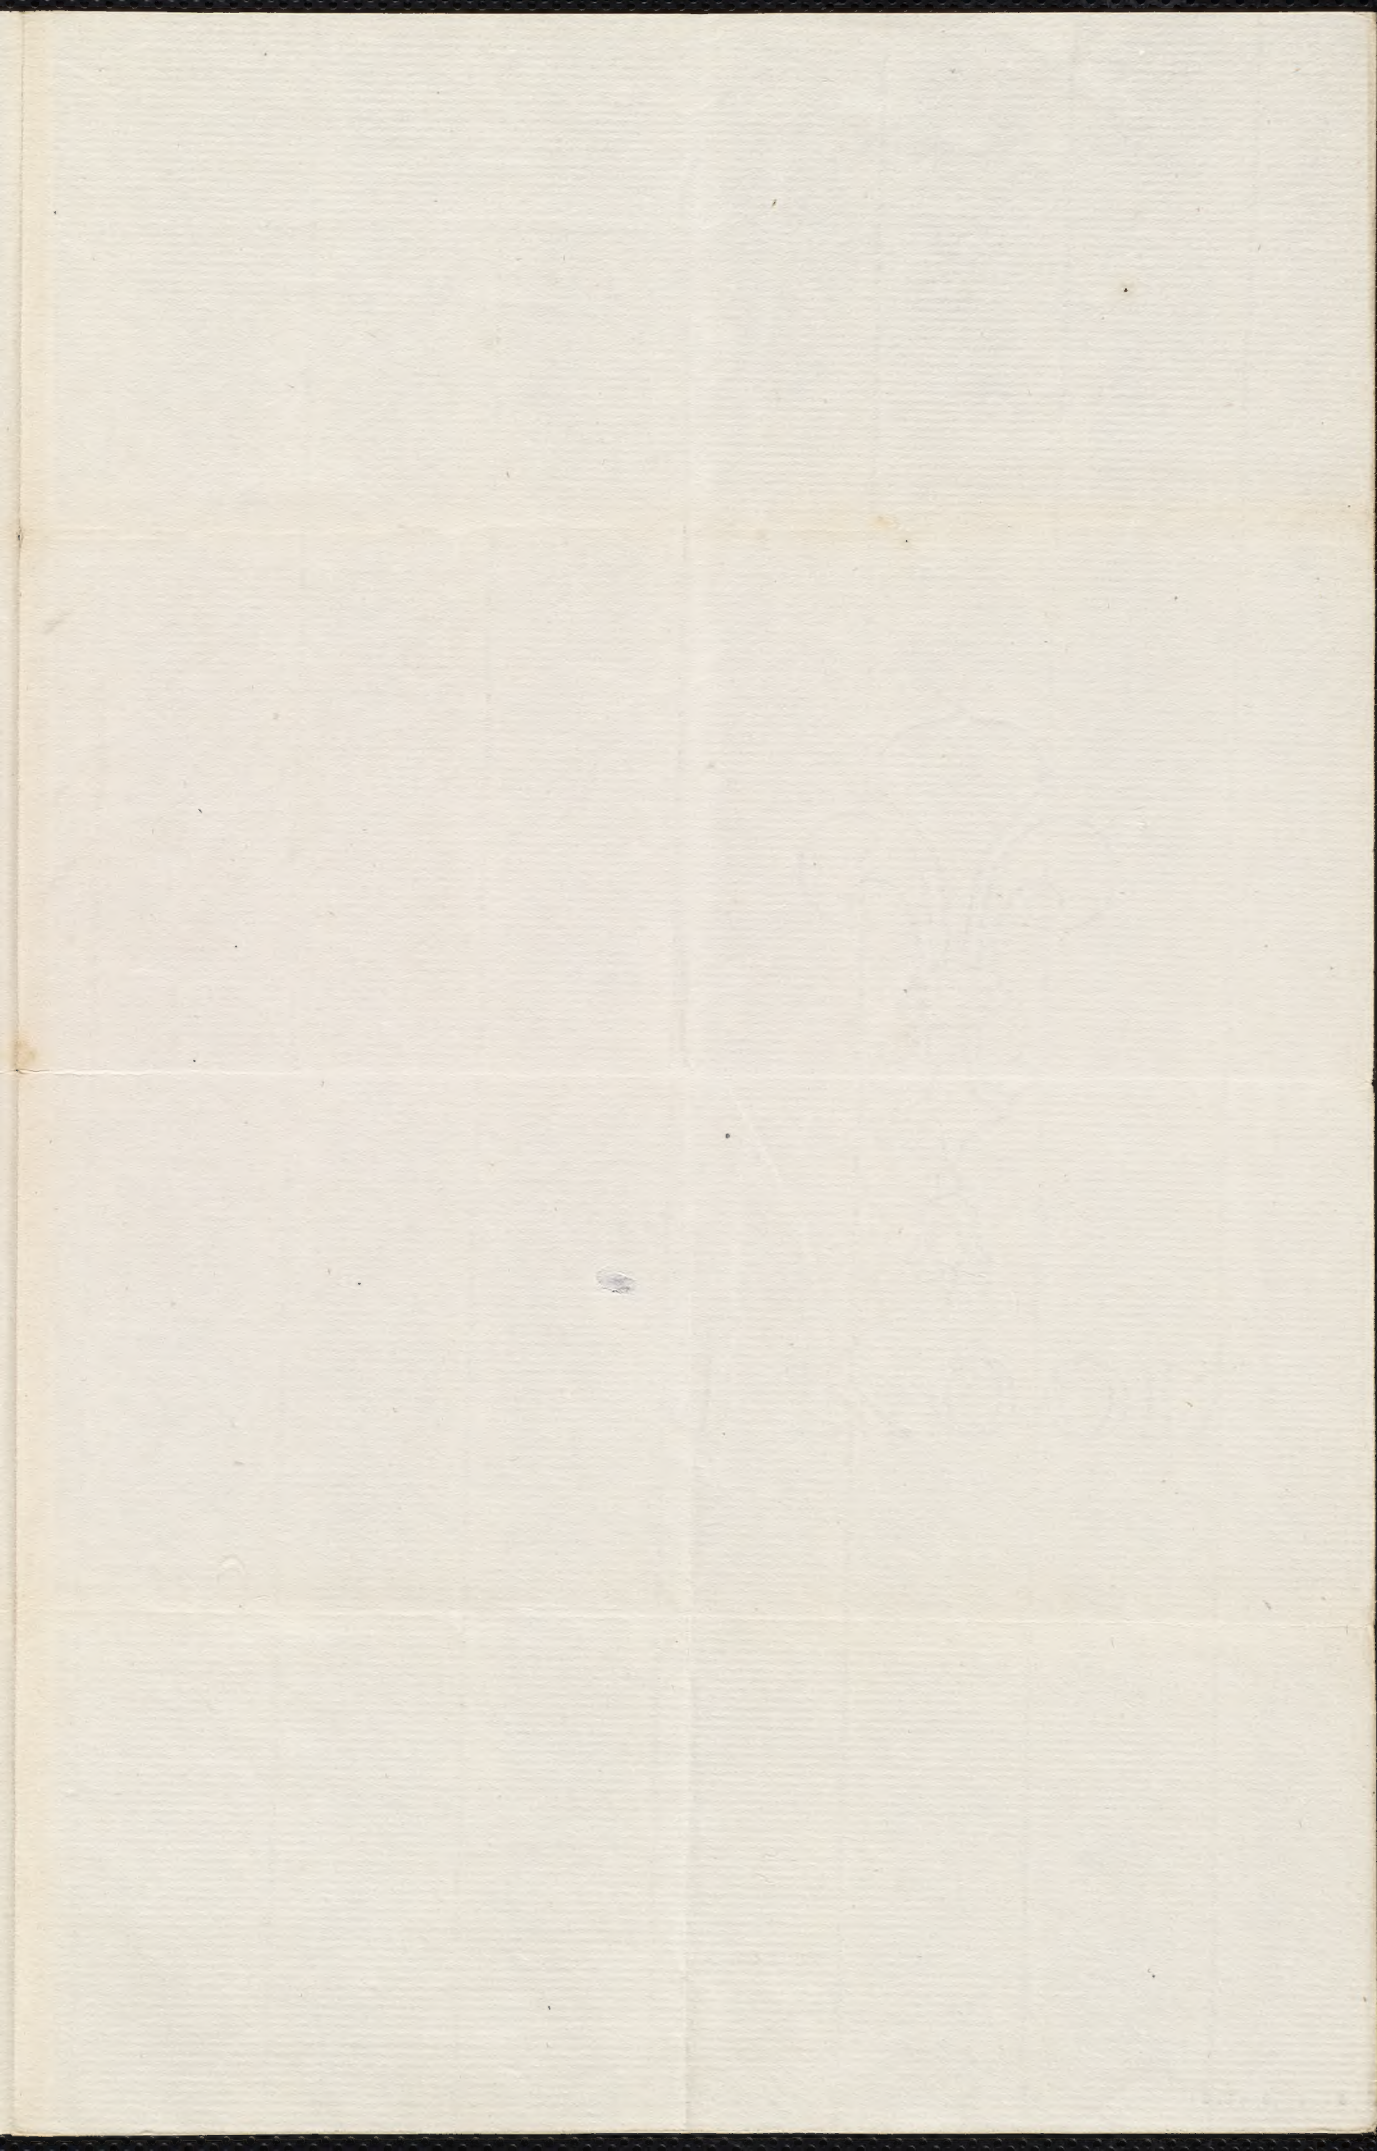

Your most obedient

Humble Servant

Hillsborough

P.S. your Letter to N^o 4.
